SAFETY and PREPAREDNESS FAIR

When is the best time to prepare for an earthquake?

BEFORE IT HAPPENS!!

The Westside Neighborhood Council invites the Westside (of Los Angeles) community to a FREE Safety and Preparedness Fair

NOVEMBER 4, 2018 11 am – 3 pm
Overland Elementary School
10640 Ashby Ave
(at the corner of Ashby and Overland)

Learn from great speakers and from experts at over 20 informative booths.

Find out what steps you should take before, during, and after an earthquake to protect yourself, your family and your neighbors. Learn what extra steps to take to ensure the well being of the elderly, those with special needs, medical issues, or mobility limitations.

- Learn pet preparedness.
- Use a fire extinguisher
- Find out when and how to turn off your gas, water and/or electricity
- Hear tips about personal and home safety– including how best to protect yourself from crime while walking, while at the grocery store, while in parking lots, and when at home.
- Learn hands-only CPR

Donate blood
at the Cedars-Sinai Blood Mobile

FREEBIES!

- 500 families will receive an “under-the-bed” emergency backpack with important information about the first few minutes after an earthquake, and more.
- YOU MUST PRE-REGISTER TO RECEIVE A FREE BACKPACK AND SUPPLIES! (One backpack per pre-registered family, while supplies last.)

KID ZONE: ACTIVITIES FOR KIDS

- Meet local firefighters and police officers; maybe even a K-9 unit.
- Take a look at fire engines, police cars and motorcycles, and the police mobile command unit.
- Kids should bring their bikes and helmets, and participate in a fun and educational bike skills workshop

WIN RAFFLE PRIZES:

- Including a 2-night hotel stay, pet preparedness kits, gift baskets, VIP tour of City Hall, grab-and-go emergency preparedness bags, kids' bikes, and more....

FOOD TRUCKS:

- Who doesn't love food trucks? Buy lunch and eat it at the fair while listening to great speakers.

BUY:

- Discounted emergency preparedness supplies.
